WHY SHOULD YOU LIVE HERE?

What our vendor says about their property:

"We have loved living here for its convenient location, friendly neighbours and easy access to Wakefield city centre. The garden is particularly enjoyable in the summer and the area offers excellent transport links for commuting.

The property is deceptively spacious and offers far more accommodation than first appears from the front. In addition to the three bedrooms, there is a useful cellar and storage areas which have been kept clean and well maintained.

The kitchen benefits from a rear extension, creating additional living space and making it larger than many similar properties in the area.

The property also benefits from a modern gas central heating system with a new boiler installed last year, providing efficient heating throughout the home.

With some simple cosmetic updating, such as fresh decoration and new carpets to suit individual tastes, the property offers an excellent opportunity for a buyer to move straight in and make it their own."
