For Sale Freehold £110,000

Situated on the cusp of Wakefield and Ossett is this well presented two bedroom mid-terrace home, offering well proportioned accommodation throughout. Boasting generous reception space and an enclosed rear garden with off road parking, this fantastic property is certainly not one to be missed.

The property briefly comprises an entrance porch leading through into the living room, with access to a further inner hallway featuring stairs rising to the first floor landing and steps descending into the kitchen diner. The kitchen diner in turn provides access out to the rear garden. To the first floor, the landing provides loft access together with doors leading to two bedrooms and the house bathroom. Externally, the property is accessed directly from the street to the front elevation, whilst to the rear is a rented garden, currently understood to be leased from a local farmer at approximately £20 per annum, payable in April. The garden is predominantly laid to lawn with mature shrubs and trees throughout, together with space for a timber built garden shed and off road parking provided via a block paved driveway suitable for one to two vehicles.

Ideally positioned between Wakefield and Ossett, the property enjoys easy access to a wide range of local amenities, many of which are within walking distance, with a broader selection available within Wakefield city centre itself. Regular local bus routes operate nearby, whilst Wakefield benefits from two railway stations offering excellent commuter links to Leeds, Manchester and London. The M1 motorway is also only a short distance away, ideal for those wishing to travel further afield.

Only a full internal inspection can truly appreciate everything this superb home has to offer. Perfectly suited to first time buyers, small families, professional couples and investors alike, an early viewing is highly recommended to avoid disappointment.
