61 Manor Road, Ossett, WF5 0LD

For Sale Freehold Starting Bid £90,000

For sale by Modern Method of Auction; Starting Bid Price £100,000 plus reservation fee. Subject to an undisclosed reserve price.

Offering an excellent opportunity for buyers wishing to place their own stamp on a property, this two bedroom end terrace home presents significant potential and, once modernised, would ideally suit a first time buyer, couple, small family, or investor. The property does require updating throughout but benefits from UPVC double glazing and provides spacious accommodation with scope for improvement.

The layout briefly comprises an entrance hall, lounge, and kitchen/diner with access to a rear porch and cellar. To the first floor are two bedrooms (please note: bedroom two is not complete in its entirety) along with a generously sized house bathroom. Externally, there is a small buffer garden to the front, while the rear benefits from a good sized lawned garden with mature shrubs, trees, and several outbuildings that offer versatility for various uses.

Situated within this popular part of Ossett, the property is ideally placed for a range of local amenities including shops, highly regarded schools, regular bus services, and the twice-weekly market. The motorway network is also easily accessible for those commuting further afield.

Offered for sale with no chain and vacant possession, an early viewing is highly recommended to appreciate the full potential this property has to offer.

This property is for sale by West Yorkshire Property Auction powered by iamsold Ltd.
