Middle Lee Farm

Sterridge Valley, Berrynarbor, Devon, EX34 9SD

Middle Lee Farm is a beautiful 18th century Devon long-house set in three acres of gardens and meadows at the foot of the beautiful Sterridge Valley. As well as the four cosy holiday cottages. No longer a working farm the original farm outbuildings and the west wing of the farmhouse have been converted into four individual and characterful, self-catering holiday cottages. Their quirky upside down design ensures the living spaces enjoy unrivaled views of the local countryside.

The main residence comprises of six bedrooms, three reception rooms and two kitchens with the left wing of the property currently being utilised as a self contained annexe with two double bedrooms. This versatile home has a unique blend of modern style with characterful original features including three log burners.

The grounds consist of a covered barn with an abundance of leisure activities, laundry facilities, a stunning orchard, luscious meadows, private landscaped gardens with pond and summerhouse, a child's play area, a paddock and a variety of outdoor seating areas.

Berrynarbor is a postcard village that sits less than a mile from the rugged North Devon coastline, close to the larger village of Combe Martin and the coastal town of Ilfracombe which is just 4 miles away. The village amenities include Ye Olde Globe Inn pub, church, primary school, small community post office and a general store.

North Devon has a wealth of simply stunning golden sand beaches and has long been a mecca for British surfers. The area has recently been declared a 'world surfing reserve', one of just 12 places on the planet along with the Australia's Golden Coast and Malibu in California. For a change of scenery Exmoor National Park offers breathtaking rolling countryside. perfect for avid walkers.
