

15A Allandale Road, Commercial Unit / Storage and £2,900

A versatile commercial premises previously used as a builders' merchant, offering a combination of spacious internal areas, covered storage and a large external yard.

The main building provides a generous open-plan space suitable for storage, workshop or trade use, together with additional covered areas and separate storage rooms. The property also benefits from a substantial external yard, providing useful additional space for storage, equipment or business use.

With its flexible layout, the property would be well suited to builders, tradespeople, contractors, storage businesses and other commercial users, subject to the necessary planning permissions.
