Description

Well presented Victorian home located just a short stroll from Church Road and St. Georges Park. This lovely home is full of character with exposed brickwork, stripped and painted floor boards and a wood burning stove.

The downstairs offer a bayed living room, full width dining room with under stair storage and french doors to the garden. The kitchen has wooden work tops and leads into a utility/lobby and a stylish downstairs bathroom.

Upstairs you'll find two large bedrooms running the full width of the house and benefits from a further study/nursery off the main bedroom that would also make an ideal ensuite! Outside the front garden is great as a bike store area and the rear courtyard is west facing with a raised decked terrace and storage shed.

A fantastic first time home in the heart of St George! Please call to view!
