

Franklyn James

Fairlead House, Cassilis Road

, London, E14 9LB

Asking Price £400,000

Located in this popular low-built block in a quiet road that is usually closed to car traffic, is this stylish and contemporary two bedroom apartment that is awash with natural light. The reception room has a genuinely open-plan layout with a breakfast bar to the kitchen, making this space suitable for modern living. There are two good size bedrooms, both with space for a double bed. This apartment features an outstanding level of storage and would make an ideal first time purchase in our opinion. The building itself benefits from a secure entry system and a lift.

Fairlead House forms part of the Canary Central development, which is superbly positioned in a highly desirable part of E14 with a wealth of local gems nearby. Sir John McDougall Garden and Docklands Sailing and Water Sports Centre are both a short walk away, as are a range of local eateries and restaurants. There is also the large Asda Superstore within easy reach, as well as a range of local shops. Both South Quay and Crossharbour DLR Stations are also nearby, providing easy access to key London locations include historic Greenwich, the business up of Canary Wharf and the City of London.
