Agents Notes

The Lodge was built in or around 1905 and was the gatehouse to the property known as Bilton Place. The Lodge was first sold as a private residence in 1920. It is a detached residence in the Victorian Arts and Crafts style. The property has solid brickwork walls with 2" bricks, leaded light window casements, ornate chimney with original king and queen chimney pots. The property occupies a large plot of approximately one third of an acre.
