£380,000

Dunchurch Hall, Dunchurch, Warwickshire

Dunchurch Hall was built in 1840 as a hunting lodge for the Duke of Buccleuch and is the centre piece of this luxury development. It is situated within easy walking distance of the centre of Dunchurch which offers a wide variety of shops including a library, chemist, and newsagent. Adjacent to the development is a private nature conservation area with a large fish pond which is available for recreational use to the owners of Dunchurch Hall. The properties are built around two landscaped courtyards mostly laid to lawn with attractive seating areas. The centre of the village is a short walk away with its village store, and public houses. Services include resident estate managers, personal alarm system, laundry room and guest suite available for visitors to stay. Communications by road are excellent via the M45, M1, M6 and M40 and rail connections from Rugby with services to London Euston. 150 year lease (from 1997), no ground rent and 55+ age covenant.
