Moray's County town, the city of Elgin has a population of around 95,780 (based on the 2017 mid-year estimate for the entire Moray region). with a beautiful central Cooper Park shouldered by famous 13th Century Cathedral. The city provides an excellent range of shops and amenities including Dr Grays Hospital, two Leisure centres along with a selection of hotels, numerous coffee shops and restaurants. Ever growing there are 3 industrial areas of mixed businesses and the promising new Elgin Business Park out at Coxtan towards Lhanbryde with its Travelodge and Service station plus ongoing construction. In addition, an exciting new regeneration development in the city centre is underway retaining the Listed Victorian period frontage (was Junners Toy Shop) and will provide retail units, a business enterprise and residential flats. There are a number of excellent primary schools in Elgin and two secondary schools in the city. Private schooling for children over 8 years of age is also available at the highly regarded Gordonstoun School, about 5 miles away.

The county of Moray is famous for its mild climate, has a beautiful and varied countryside with a coastline of rich agricultural land, prosperous fishing villages and wide, open beaches. The upland areas to the south are sparsely populated and provide dramatic scenery, some of which forms part of the Cairngorm National Park. This unspoilt landscape provides a wide range of leisure and sporting opportunities including fishing on the world famous Spey and Findhorn rivers, sailing and walking. There are many highly regarded golf courses in the area including Elgin Golf Club (about 3 miles), The Moray Golf Club in Lossiemouth (about 6 miles) and also the two championship links golf courses in Nairn and at Castle Stuart.

Located about 20 minutes drive away is the 'jewel' of the Moray Coastline, the historic village of Findhorn with its sheltered bay providing excellent sailing, water sports and highly regarded Inns.
