Outstanding period property with extensive garden grounds in central situation of Elgin City, Moray's County town.

The Policies comprise Blackfriar's Cottage, The Coach House, which is currently a shell but has been granted planning permission for alteration and extension to a 2 bedroom property as well as absolutely stunning garden grounds, the rear of which extend to a third of an acre.

In addition to the electronic gate providing security, there are a number of outbuildings including 2 timber garages as well as a wash house, gardner's loo and garden shed all attached to the rear of the Coach House.

The two properties lies only a metre apart and so the immediate thought, is could they be joined together and how would that work - could be fabulous.

Alternatively, given the size of the gardens, both the buildings could be significantly extended resulting in something very special indeed.

The Cottage could be extended and the Coach redesigned as a work from home studio.....the list is long and varied but the potential will be obvious to the prospective buyer with artistic insight and flair.
