Description

This surprisingly spacious, modern, end of terrace home has been extended to create a lovely open plan, modern, living space on the ground floor and benefits from a particularly generous corner plot. The property is located towards the outskirts of the popular village of Plymtree, within only a short distance of village amenities such as a well regarded pub, primary school and community run village stores. The ground floor accommodation comprises a hall with cloakroom, sitting room with log burner, which opens to a lovely open plan kitchen/dining room. Upstairs, the principal bedroom benefits from fitted wardrobes, whilst there are two further bedrooms and a family bathroom. Outside, the gloriously sunny rear garden is divided into two distinct areas, ideal for following the sun all day long. There is also a single garage and parking. An early viewing of this charming village home is strongly advised.

Situation and Amenities

Pleasantly located on the outskirts of this popular East Devon village with its public house, primary school and community run village shop. The nearby country town of Cullompton offers a range of high street shops including award winning Veyseys Butchers and Bakehouse Coffee Shop/Wine Bar and two supermarkets. The M5 facilitates rapid commuting north to the county town of Taunton and south to the cathedral city of Exeter and beyond. The surrounding countryside offers a wealth of rural pursuits with the nearby Blackdown Hills being designated as an area of outstanding natural beauty. The comparatively central Mid Devon location places the picturesque National Parks of Dartmoor and Exmoor together with the north and south Devon coastlines all within a modest car journey.
