A superb single-occupancy room within a high quality professional house share. All current occupants are full-time working professionals, and applicants must be working to be considered.

The property has been finished to an excellent standard throughout, featuring a stylish industrial design. Ideally located in the heart of Bearwood, the house is within easy walking distance of bus transport links and offers quick access to the city centre. The local area is well served by shops, cafés, bars, an Aldi supermarket, and nearby green spaces.
