Walkthrough

The apartment benefits from the convent's striking architecture, period features and 2 acres of communal grounds and gardens. Approached from private parking across a paved courtyard the first floor of the property can be accessed by either stairs or lift. Here, the front door of the property leads from a welcoming, carpeted communal area into the apartment's entrance hall that connects the kitchen/living area to the left with the two bedrooms and family bathroom to the right. There are also two built-in storage areas housed in the hallway to the left.

The kitchen/living room is an incredibly spacious, extremely versatile, open-plan room of 10.3m x 6.3m. The kitchen has a C-shaped area of worksurface and peninsula with an integrated NEFF oven; fridge/freezer, sink and dishwasher. Ample storage is provided by both high and low units and there is space, plumbing and electrics for a washing machine/dryer.

The entirety of the remaining space is available to be configured in dining and seating areas as preferred. However the room is configured, it benefits from high ceilings and five full-height, dual-aspect windows, two with Juliette balconies. These windows are distinctive period features overlooking the property's picturesque grounds and flood the room with natural light.

Returning to the entrance hall, towards a landing that joins the two bedrooms with the family bathroom. The principal bedroom is a double room with an ensuite shower-room with decoratively tiled shower, W/C and sink. The second bedroom is a good-size double room. Both bedrooms benefit from plenty of natural light provided by period floor-to-ceiling windows. The family bathroom to the left of the corridor features a bath, W/C and pedestal basin with decorative splash-proof tiling above the basin and bath.

Outside, this former convent offers residents shared access to the 2 acres of picturesque gardens. This includes well-manicured areas of trees, shrub and flower borders in addition to areas of lawn for recreation or dog walking: the whole building is dog friendly.

There is allocated parking for one vehicle, with additional guest parking available. The property is on mains electricity, Recently fitted electric boiler and is on mains drainage.

There is no onward chain. The lease term is 999 years from January 2005 (979 years remaining). The Current service charge is £3927pa
