

Roundwell, Maidstone, ME14 4HN
Offers in excess of £700,000 Freehold

Located in Kent's picturesque and popular village of Bearsted, near Maidstone, this lovely Grade II listed cottage offers a wonderful mix of period charm and contemporary living. The house is believed to date back to the 16th Century and was extended in recent years to offer spacious living for a three-bedroom property, combined with three bathrooms and lots of built-in storage. The period features include the main fireplace and surround in the living room and exposed beams.

Bearsted offers a selection of local shops, pubs, golf course, parks including the very popular Woodland Trust park, services, railway station with regular services to London, and highly regarded primary schools. Whereas nearby Maidstone provides a good selection of shops, restaurants, parks, services, library and the main local hospital.

The property's benefits include: three reception rooms, study area, modern fitted kitchen/breakfast room, three bathrooms, three double bedrooms with built in storage, underfloor heating, period features, an impressive fireplace, home cinema installation, block paved driveway and parking area, carport, and a large 32'5 barn/entertaining area.
