Bank House, Terrace Road

Tideswell, SK17 8NA

Description

A pretty detached home which commands fine, southerly views over the village from its wide and sunny patio, across the market square towards St John The Baptist's 'Cathedral of The Peak'. This superb home occupies an enviable position in Tideswell which boasts a rich history and a thriving community. Historically the village has always been a popular place to live and its long tradition of food markets and industry is very much still in evidence, making it a great place to live, visit and socialise. Bank House is situated in an elevated position, above the Market Square, next to one of the villages greens, conveniently close to the superb amenities found in the heart of the village. There are numerous cafes, restaurants and public houses on hand that cater to weary walkers, tourists and the local residents combining to provide a strong sense of community. This lovely home would suit a broad range of buyer yet, with its modest garden, it is suggested that it would be perfect for those who are perhaps looking for a holiday home in the Limestone uplands of The Park and not wanting to maintain a large outside space. With accommodation over three floors including three good double bedrooms, two bathrooms (one ensuite), a large dining kitchen and a pretty sitting room this cosy home will not fail to impress and an early viewing is very much advised.
