Description

Description

Nestled in the picturesque village of Bradwell, within the stunning Peak District, this charming period stone cottage, offers a delightful blend of character and modern living. Recently redecorated throughout, the property features two spacious double bedrooms, each thoughtfully positioned on separate floors, providing privacy and comfort. One of the bedrooms boasts built-in storage, ensuring ample space for your belongings. All rooms have modern, electric wall mounted heaters.

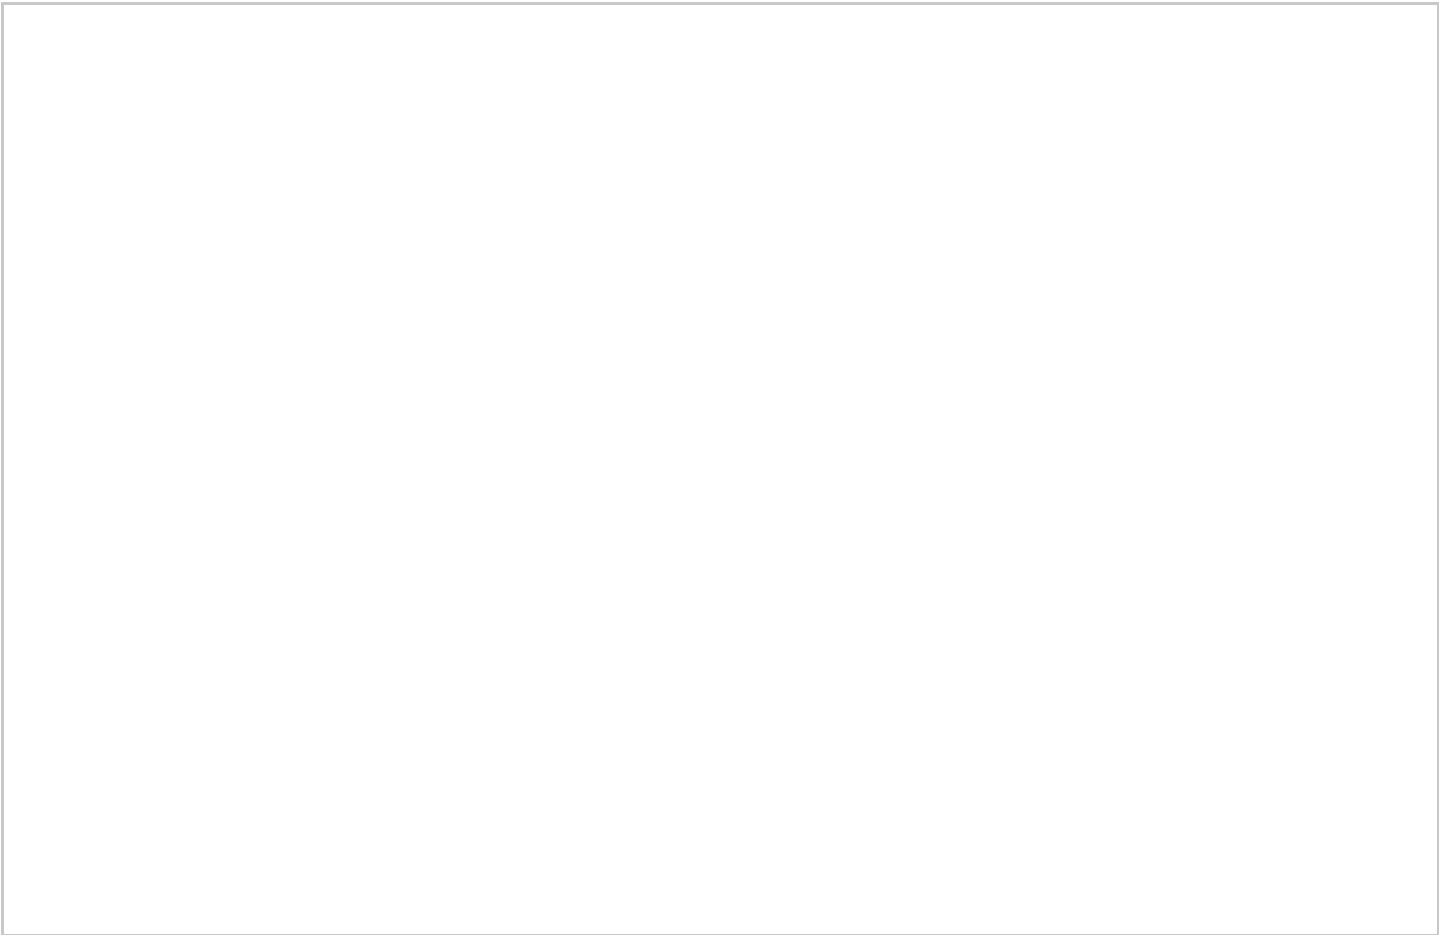

The heart of the home is a contemporary kitchen, equipped with a range of stylish wall and base units, complemented by a freestanding gas cooker, perfect for culinary enthusiasts. The ground floor also hosts a modern bathroom, featuring a white three-piece suite and a convenient shower over the bath.

This cottage is not only a lovely residence but also benefits from on-street parking nearby, making it practical for everyday living. The surrounding area is rich with scenic walks, ideal for nature lovers, and offers access to good local schooling, making it a suitable choice for families.

Additionally, the property includes a separate brick-built storage shed, providing extra space for outdoor equipment or personal belongings. Whether you are seeking your first home, a quirky second residence, or a charming weekend retreat, this cottage presents an excellent opportunity to embrace the tranquil lifestyle that Bradwell has to offer.
