Description

A traditionally attractive, 1920's semi detached property that represents a super opportunity for the next owners to renovate to meet their requirements. The property is situated on the desirable south facing side of the road and must be one, of only a handful, that haven't seen major works in recent years. It is suggested that due to the depth of the plot, there is plenty of room for extending if required (subject to regs). With 922 square feet of accommodation, over two floors, including a knocked through dining kitchen this property has a lovely feel throughout. The location is first class, a short walk away from the excellent local amenities in Fulwood Village which include bus services into town and also ideally placed for highly regarded schooling for all age groups.
