Description

A terrace with a difference! This property has been lovingly restored and renovated by the current owners into a quite delightful home. With an excellent range of accommodation over three floors, supported by a storage cellar that offers potential for further development, subject to the necessary consents. The property has attractive décor, complemented by modern fixtures and fittings throughout. If you like cooking then the kitchen with its central island/breakfast bar and range oven will be sure to appeal and the front lounge is also a lovely space to unwind. Upstairs there are four bedrooms and a luxurious bathroom which will provide space for the family market or an additional home office if required. The hard work and attention to detail has continued outside with a smart, end of run landscaped garden featuring a dining patio outside the kitchen. The patio features Indian stone flag stones and a stainless steel sink and drainer, with both hot and cold water from a butchers tap, making it great for BBQs and entertaining. Beyond the terrace you will find the bespoke garden office/cabin that has been designed to fit onto the original gardeners W.C (with hot water supply) and provide space for those who now spend time working from home. At the foot of the garden there is a further, seated terrace area that is designed around raised beds and a mature blossom tree. Sharrow is a vibrant neighbourhood which is found very close to the city centre and on the fringe of both the fashionable areas of Nether Edge Village and Sharrowvale. The area is going from strength to strength and rapidly increasing in value. The combination of the landscaped garden, home office, cellar storage and deceptively spacious accommodation surely combine to make this one of the areas most attractive houses in this price bracket and it is suggested that this is an opportunity that really shouldn't be missed.
