Description

This end of terrace property is ideally placed for access to both Sheffield and Sheffield Hallam Universities was recently re-roofed (in 2022) and re carpeted in 2023. The property, however, is in need of some mid-to-long-term renovations in some places, as some aspects of the property are now outdated, including the kitchen, but overall the property makes a fantastic investment opportunity. . There are four double bedrooms, situated over three floors and a smart, open plan kitchen diner arrangement at the end of the entrance hallway helping to make this property such a popular choice among prospective tenants over the years and a great investment for the owners. The area of Commonsides is very much something of a hidden gem, well served by an excellent range of amenities that include regular transport links into town and a number of busy pubs that create a great social scene.
