87, Beech Hill Road

Sheffield, S10 2SA

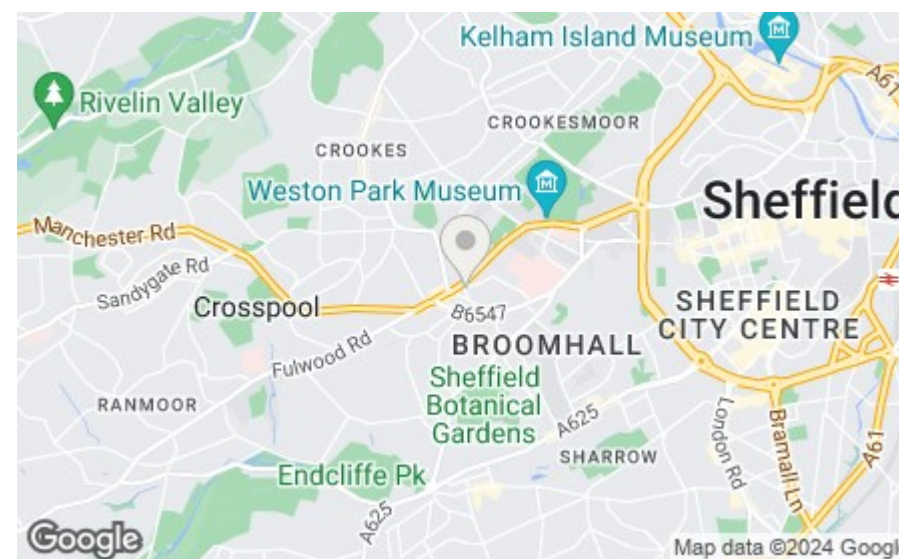

Description

Located at the very top of Beech Hill Road as it joins Newbould Lane, a stones' throw away from the excellent range of amenities that are found in this thriving suburb and offering versatile accommodation over three floors which will suit both owner occupiers and investors alike. Indeed the property is actually let at the moment, returning £22'176 when fully let (£462 per room, per month) although with its prime location, close to excellent schooling and an end of run garden the property will surely also appeal to the family market. The location is ideal for medics and academics, being so close to the main city hospitals and Sheffield University and if you work in the city regular bus services can whisk you into the centre of town in under ten minutes. The nearby Botanical Gardens and Ponderosa provide space to unwind away from the thriving bars, restaurants and cafes that combine to make Broomhill such a vibrant and desirable place to live.
