This is a perfect retirement home for a single person or couple seeking independent living while having the security and peace of mind that comes with a McCarthy and Stone retirement development. This particular development has the added attraction of a resident House Manager for added security and peace of mind. As Britain's leading retirement builder you can always expect their developments to be first class. Special care and attention is not just limited to the design of each development and its grounds alone. It extends to every aspect of each and every apartment. Their kitchens include colour co-ordinated worktops, tiles and cabinets that are both modern and pleasing to the eye – the kitchen, as a whole, is designed to be safe, easy and convenient to use. Another thoughtful touch are the lever taps in the kitchen and bathrooms that are so much easier to use than conventional taps. Furthermore, all electric power sockets are positioned at waist height and each apartment enjoys the home comforts of electric night storage heating and uPVC double glazing.

THE PROPERTY

A RETIREMENT GEM IN THE HEART OF HEAVITREE. A rare and exciting opportunity has arisen to acquire this well-appointed and exceptionally spacious one-bedroom ground-floor apartment. Forming part of a sought after McCarthy & Stone retirement complex in the heart of Heavitree, this particular apartment is ideally situated as the first property encountered beyond the main entrance foyer and communal lounge. The property further benefits from the comfort and convenience of uPVC double glazing and electric heating ensuring a comfortable living environment throughout the year and making it an ideal retreat for retirement living.

Meyer Court is ideally located within easy reach of Heavitree shopping centre, local bus services, and the picturesque Heavitree Pleasure Park, which comes with vibrant café/community hub venue and is currently undergoing exciting developments, including a new splash pad, water features and enhanced play facilities.

The complex itself offers a range of communal amenities, including a resident House Manager for added security, a mobility scooter store, and a residents' car park, fostering a sense of community and support among residents.
