Interior

This impressive property has been thoughtfully designed around open plan living, elegant finishes and everyday practicality. The kitchen forms the heart of the space, fitted with sleek L-shaped white gloss cabinetry and integrated appliances, creating a refined yet functional setting for cooking, hosting and day-to-day life. From here, the layout flows effortlessly into the dining area, where there is room to gather for sociable meals with family and friends. Continuing through, the lounge offers a wonderfully comfortable space to unwind, with an easy connection to the rest of the living area that gives the home a natural sense of movement and openness. Whether relaxing in front of the television, entertaining guests or enjoying quiet time at the end of the day, this area feels both stylish and inviting. A cleverly positioned office nook adds further versatility, ideal for those who work from home or require a dedicated study space, while a W/C and storage cupboard provide essential convenience. A separate hallway leads through to the bedroom accommodation, creating a subtle divide between the sociable living areas and the more peaceful private spaces. Bedroom one is a generous double room, beautifully enhanced by sliding doors opening directly out to the terrace, allowing the outside space to become a natural extension of the room. A dedicated dressing room with extensive built-in wardrobes adds a luxurious sense of practicality, while the en-suite shower room is finished with modern fully tiled walls and a contemporary suite. Bedroom two is also a well-proportioned double room and also benefits from its own separate dressing area with built-in wardrobes, making the property exceptionally practical for storage. Completing the interior is a superb four-piece bathroom, designed with a freestanding bath, separate shower, W/C and floating hand basin, bringing a calm, modern finish to the home.

Exterior

Externally, the property continues to impress with features that greatly enhance both lifestyle and convenience. A standout benefit is the allocated sheltered parking space, positioned within a gated, coded, private residents-only car park below the building, offering security and ease in such a desirable Leigh-on-Sea location. The home also enjoys its own paved terrace area, accessed both from the lounge and first bedroom, creating a wonderful space for outdoor dining, morning coffee, evening drinks or entertaining guests during the warmer months. One of the property's most unique features is its private entrance doorway, accessed down the side of the building through a gate. This gives the home a more individual feel than many apartment-style properties, with the choice of entering via the private front door or coming through the gated terrace entrance and directly into the lounge. This sense of privacy, independence and flexibility makes the home feel particularly special.

Location

Bell Sands enjoys an exceptional position in the heart of Old Leigh, placing the charm of the seafront, the character of the old town and the energy of Leigh-on-Sea all within easy reach. Old Leigh's famous cockle sheds, waterfront pubs, cafés and The Boatyard restaurant are all nearby, creating an enviable coastal lifestyle moments from the door. For shopping, dining and everyday amenities, Leigh Broadway is within a short stroll, offering a superb choice of independent boutiques, cafés, bars and restaurants. Leigh-on-Sea station is also close by, providing mainline rail services towards London Fenchurch Street, making the location highly convenient for commuters while still feeling immersed in the relaxed rhythm of the coast. This location is somewhere you would be proud to call home.
