The property

Four Winds, is a 1960's detached and extended property, set back from the village lane in a peaceful rural hamlet between Cirencester and Stroud. This much-loved family home offers well-proportioned accommodation and delightful gardens that back onto picturesque fields.

Upon entering, you're welcomed into an L-shaped hallway that features a staircase and a convenient shower room. The hallway provides access to the spacious sitting room at one end and the dining room at the other. The 21'5" x 21' sitting room boasts a dual aspect, with a central fireplace featuring a wood burner and sliding patio doors leading to a courtyard, offering views of the rear garden. A door connects to the formal dining room, which also benefits from a dual aspect, including views of the garden. The heart of the home is the generously proportioned, extended kitchen/breakfast/family room measuring 27' x 12'4".

This bright and airy space is flooded with natural light, with a modern fitted kitchen at one end overlooking the garden and a versatile dining area at the other. The room offers ample flexibility for furnishings and family activities. An inner door provides convenient access to the double garage, with a utility area behind it. Upstairs, you'll find four bedrooms, all equipped with storage solutions. The main bedroom, measuring 17'5" x 15'8", is a particularly generous space, complete with abundant wardrobes. A family bathroom serves the upper floor. While the property would benefit from some cosmetic updating, it presents a wonderful opportunity to create a personalized, stylish home in a serene countryside setting.

Heating: Oil fired central heating and a wood burner.
Private septic tank drainage - compliant.
Ofcom: Broadband - Ultrafast available. Mobile coverage: Indoor limited. Outdoor - likely.
Soffits: Suspected asbestos - TBC.

Outside

The front is enclosed by a Cotswold stone wall and hedging and is accessed through five-bar gates. Ample private parking is found on the driveway, leading to an attached double garage. A lawned area with mature plantings has a gated pedestrian path leading to the rear garden. The septic tank is situated near the entrance. The boiler is housed in the double garage, which also features a utility area with external access. There is a crazy paved patio with a low-level Cotswold stone wall with steps up to a large, level lawned garden. The magnificent level garden is spacious, suitable for growing vegetables or fruits and engaging in various sporting activities. Additional features include a workshop at the rear and an oil tank at the side of the house.

Situation

Far Oakridge is a small rural hamlet amidst breathtaking Cotswold countryside, in the heart of the Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. Village amenities can be found in the neighbouring Cotswold village of Oakridge Lynch which is located less than a mile away. This thriving community enjoys the benefits of St Bartholomew's Church, Oakridge Parochial primary school, a village shop with post office, the Butcher's Arms public house, a village hall, cricket club and a variety of clubs and associations. The area offers excellent educational opportunities with grammar schools for boys and girls being available in Gloucester, Stroud and Cheltenham. Secondary schools are found in nearby Eastcombe village, Stroud and Cirencester. Kemble Railway Station offers direct lines to London (Paddington) in 1hr 10mins.
