WHITAKER
SEAGER

THE LODGE, HOLLINGHAM LANE, HORSLEY, STROUD, GL6 0NZ

A UNIQUELY DESIGNED 4 BEDROOM COTSWOLD STONE HOME, NESTLED IN THE COTSWOLD COUNTRYSIDE WITH PANORAMIC VIEWS, LANDSCAPED GARDENS, GATED DRIVEWAY AND GARAGING.

The property

A uniquely designed detached Cotswold residence in a picturesque village setting with far-reaching views across the Horsley Valley. Thoughtfully conceived by the previous owner, the house blends traditional materials with an individual design. Constructed in Cotswold stone, it sits comfortably within its surroundings, while the interior reveals a striking character. Inspired by Mediterranean travel, the design features open-plan living, curved white walls, and vaulted ceilings, with principal rooms arranged to maximise views. The property is entered via a canopied entrance and oak stable door, opening into a space that draws the eye to the landscape beyond. The sitting room enjoys a vaulted ceiling, open fireplace, and natural light, with French doors and glazing opening onto a resin-decked terrace, flowing into an open-plan dining area with bi-fold doors. This leads to a hand-built kitchen with base units, a cool cupboard, and storage, plus a utility area with further storage, a kitchen maid pulley, and access to a rear store connecting front and rear. Arranged over split levels, the accommodation is versatile, with four ensuite bedrooms suited to family living or home working. The principal suite occupies the east elevation with a bedroom, shower room, and dressing/living area with bespoke wardrobes and French doors to the garden. Bedroom two, accessed via steps from the sitting room, has fitted wardrobes, a safe, and an ensuite with dual sinks. Bedroom three, reached via stone steps, has a shower room and has served as a home office. Bedroom four is to the rear, with a shower room accessed from both bedroom and hallway. Additional features include oil-fired underfloor heating, an integrated vacuum system, loft storage via a bespoke ladder, a compliant septic tank. The property is registered across two titles and subject to restrictive covenants (details available on request).
