The Ferns is a truly exceptional detached Cotswold stone residence, set in approx. 0.26 acres of beautifully enclosed walled gardens. Offering an elegant fusion of historic charm and contemporary style, the home features a striking Victorian wing alongside a stunning modern reconfiguration, including an impressive open-plan garden room with vaulted ceiling and bi-fold doors.

Rich in period character, original features include tessellated tiled floors, stone mullion windows with deep sills, exposed beams, Cotswold stone walls, wooden floors, and an inglenook fireplace with wood burner. Two staircases—one traditional spiral—add charm and flexibility.

The generous, light-filled layout includes a formal dual-aspect reception room with fireplace and French doors, and a phenomenal open-plan kitchen/dining/living space with bespoke units, a gas-fired Aga, and glazed well feature. The practical rear wing offers a boot room, utility, and cloakroom with a separate entrance.

Upstairs, the first floor hosts the luxurious principal bedroom with dual-aspect views and an expansive ensuite. A second double, family bathroom, and separate study complete this level. The top floor offers three further doubles and a smart bathroom.

Outside, the gated driveway provides parking for several vehicles and includes an EV charging point. The Cotswold stone-walled garden is thoughtfully designed with 'garden rooms', lawned areas, a pond, ornamental planting, and a wooded play zone. There is also a charming stone outbuilding with mezzanine and a two-tiered courtyard ideal for entertaining.

Heating & Energy: Gas central heating, two wood burners, underfloor heating (garden room & ensuite), gas Aga, and solar panels for electricity and hot water.

Connectivity: Ultrafast broadband via Gigaclear; mobile coverage likely indoors and out (Ofcom).
