THE PROPERTY

A centre terraced timber clad cottage located in a semi-rural location with origins we believe to the early 1800's. The property originally would have been constructed for workers in the Mint growing industry which used to be prevalent within this local area, hence the name of the property. The property has accommodation over two floors with a spacious open plan lounge, dining room and kitchen and with regard to the decoration retains a wealth of character features.

OUTDOOR SPACE

There is parking made available for one vehicle to the front of the property. The rear garden measures 37ft and is south west facing serving for excellent entertainment or simply enjoying those British summer evenings.

THE LOCAL AREA

The property is located just on the immediate extremities of Banstead Village High Street and affords a flat level walk to the High Street with a comprehensive range of shopping facilities, cafes/restaurants and transport connections. The area highly regarded with its myriads of footpaths providing long and enjoyable country walks over the adjoining rural landscape.

WHY YOU SHOULD VIEW

It would be hard to better this house if you seek a country cottage. The cottage is very well presented, however still offers potential to further modernise. The property is surrounded by excellent schools, transport options, shops and open countryside. The south westerly facing rear garden will provide a lovely afternoon sunset if you wish to host or enjoy a relaxing quiet evening.
