THE PROPERTY

Holly Hill Park was designed around 1911-1913 by W. Roland Howell for Lesley Garton and then converted in 2002 by award winning developer Squires Bridge and features formal gardens which encompass yew hedging, a lily pond, sunken gardens and is a perfect reflection of early twentieth century design. The property offers an impressive 1545 square feet and benefits from a large formal lounge and an expansive kitchen/dining room. There are two excellent sized bedrooms. The principle bedroom suite comprises of a large bedroom area giving way to a dressing room and en-suite shower room. Bedroom two has access to the private balcony.

OUTSIDE AREA

The gardens were established in the early twentieth century, originally for the private residential estate and was designed with formal layouts synonymous with the period. Surrounding the property is direct access onto Banstead Woods which is a stunning area of landscaped value which will allow you to take evening walks without a second thought and a community where you feel fully invested.

THE LOCAL AREA

Banstead Village is within easy walking distance and the countryside is literally on your doorstep. Banstead village offers a thriving High Street with plentiful independent shops, coffee shops, restaurants, supermarkets including Waitrose and Marks & Spencer's Foodhall. The excellent local schools and the array of vast open green belt spaces and countryside adds to its charm. There is good public transport available from Banstead Village as well as excellent connections to the A217 road network which connects to the M25, M23 and A3. The area is relaxed and a lovely neighbourhood with a thriving community where people feel fully invested.

WHY YOU SHOULD VIEW

The property will appeal to a multitude of buyers, in particular may suit downsizers because of it's convenient to Banstead Village and walking distance of miles of open countryside, yet in a secure location enabling you to travel with piece mind, knowing the property is in a secure and safe environment.

FROM THE SELLER

What attracted us to this property 11 years ago when it was time for us to down size: The elegance, character and beauty of the Manor House and grounds that was converted in 2002 to a very high standard of specification and award winning designs. It's very unique and has its own private balcony, the elegance and an abundance of charm. It's spacious, quiet and secure. Everyone living here enjoys travelling regularly with either family or other properties overseas which means that we can easily leave our apartment for months at a time. It's a wonderful place to lock up and leave with peace of mind. Backing onto Banstead woods offers additional tranquillity with the option of enjoying a stroll, walking or running and a short stride into the bustling High Street with its vibrant charm of various restaurants, cafes, pub, local shops and various amenities. We really love living here and will be sad to go but our hearts are with our family in Australia.
