THE PROPERTY

A sympathetically extended tudor style detached family home with a wealth of charm paired with a modern taste and style for families to enjoy for generations. The ground floor provides great space to entertain by way of the open plan kitchen/living room or simply to relax with its separate living space. Having two separate reception rooms downstairs gives great versatility to families providing space to either utilise as an office, a play room or separate dining room should you wish. Upstairs there are four double bedrooms and one family bathroom. The principle bedroom benefits from an en-suite.

OUTSIDE SPACE

21.34m x 21.34m (70 x 70)
The rear garden is what really brings this home together incorporating indoor/outdoor living. The rear kitchen/diner allows for a seamless flow making for a great entertainment space. The south-west facing garden is a sun worshipper's dream and also offers potential to further landscape and include plant/shrub borders.

LOCAL AREA

This stunning property is located in a very highly desirable residential road within a very short easy walk to Banstead Village and the countryside is literally on your doorstep.
