The Property

Immaculate from communal door to front door and front door and beyond. A modern development in the period style but harmoniously blending both styles with ease. With modernity comes light and efficiency and this flat is no different. Each space, be it communal or private, is spacious and easy to access. Entering through the communal door via the entry phone, the communal parts have a glass atrium effect and the lift access to the desired floor is very helpful and practical for access with shopping and prams etc. Behind the oak door, the layout, décor and features are market leading. Sharing the balcony, the double bedroom complete with fitted wardrobes and the lounge with open plan kitchen. Both rooms are spacious and homely. The bathroom is also very inviting to use and includes a three piece suite. The hallway serves all the internal rooms. Without any work required you can move straight in and enjoy.
