Williams Harlow Cheam – A house for the ages which will define your families best memories in the generation to come. Located within one of the most requested and sought-after roads in South Cheam. If you seek the very best for your family and lifestyle, this home is a must view.

The Property

Having been the home for the family for many years its likely the new owner will want to modernise the property and there is lots of potential on offer. The main body of the house spreads across three floors and includes seven bedrooms, study, four reception rooms and three bathrooms, whilst the annexe offers lounge, bedroom and shower room. The garages offer further potential to increase the size of the annexe if you so desire. The kitchen, opening onto a reception room, provides separately utility rooms and storerooms. The décor is well maintained and of some quality, albeit it's likely the next owner will wish to modernise. Rarer internal features include, sauna, steam room and first floor sun terrace to take in the vast garden.

Outdoor Space

The wide, deep plot is first noticed upon arrival, and measures near 80 ft in width. The carriage driveway proceeds to deliver you to the front door and triple garages.

The rear garden is glorious. A sprawling garden measuring over 200 ft in length. Essentially its size lends itself to most designs and possible outbuildings. Designed in a classical style of patio leading into lawn, which I turn reaches the dividing hedging that hides the secret old orchard, now the play area. A garden which will be used to mark family occasions that mean so much to us. The entire plots measures .56 of an acre.
