WILLIAMS
HARLOW

Williams Harlow - An exceptional house which boasts size, condition and instant kerb appeal. The ultra convenient location is ideal for Stoneleigh Broadway and train station, local schools including Auriol Junior school and Cuddington Community Primary School. This really is a must view house for serious buyers.

The Property - Luxury kerb appeal

An imposing house from the front and back which impresses all who arrive. Having been extended, the house is better in everyway and now includes four double bedrooms, three bathroom room facilities to service the bedrooms, four reception rooms with ground floor lavatory to service the ground floor. With period detailing such as bay windows and fireplaces the property offers rich character to balance the modern fittings and décor. Additionally the blend of open plan kitchen family room alongside the separate reception rooms means space for larger families to live harmoniously at all times. Other enhancements include direct access into the double garage, fitted wardrobes to the most bedrooms spacious hall and landing.

Outside Space - Private and Mature

The front has been paved for ultra convenience. with side access to the rear garden, which is private and mature measuring circa 90 ft by 50 ft.

The Local Area - Walk to a host of options

Stoneleigh Broadway is a local strip of a highstreet complete with convenient shop, trans station and restaurants. Ewell Village is a little further on, as is Nonsuch park and the Kingston Road which accesses to A3 and Kingston.

Why You Should Buy - Obvious upon viewing

If your budget allows, this house provides so much more than the alternative step down (three bedroom with kitchen extension) and is well worth the investment.
