The Property

One of the most popular developments in Cheam, this handsome building is incredibly sought after. This specific example is a corner flat which makes a difference in terms of room sizes and windows, both are improved. The owners has started a family here and the size definitely lends itself to growth and room to live in. Two double bedrooms with fitted storage are available alongside a large lounge, a modern kitchen and modern bathroom. Practical, the flat offers lots of storage throughout. Equally impressive is the blend of modern décor and homely appeal; it feels a joy to be in.

Outside Space

Set in pretty communal gardens, this flat offers outside areas to enjoy.

The Local Area

Located between Cheam Village and Worcester Park High street, this flats enjoys both equally. Found on a side road as you approach North Cheam high street and crossroads, which offers shops, restaurants and supermarkets, you are just as convenient for Nonsuch Park and local transport links. Buses to Morden tube, Kingston town centre, Wimbledon, Epsom and Croydon can be picked up very close by and ensure you are well connected. Cheam is well known for its excellent schooling and you can certainly walk to Cheam High, Cheam Fields and Meadow primary school. Lastly if you haven't already, visit nearby Nonsuch park which is miles of stunning open and green outside space.
