WILLIAMS HARLOW

Williams Harlow Cheam - A generational purchase for those who seek a detached house in the most sought after local area and one which can be changed to suit. Requiring modernisation, you can revel in the designing stage and create a house which truly reflects your needs. Offered without an onward chain.

The Property - Potential To Modernise

A small row of houses built circa 1971 and mentioned as buildings of local interest. The design has strong hints of architectural design to suit and interact with its surroundings, additionally excelling in high levels of natural light via the large windows on offer through out.

A small enclosed porch welcomes you in and provides space for coats, shoes and buggies. The larger entrance hall follows and rooms branch off this central trunk. Spacious study to right, large lounge to left, dining room with galleried 1st floor above far left, ground floor lavatory to right, kitchen ahead and utility room far right. That makes three reception rooms, kitchen, separate utility and cloakroom to ground floor.

First floor offers four bedrooms and two bathrooms. The master bedroom includes a dressing area. The landing has galleried views above the dining room.

Outside Space - A Discreet Plot

A rear garden measuring 62' x 42'. A frontage which measures 62' by 48'.

The road is a pretty suburban road which is tree lined with grass verges. At the brow of a small incline, looking down the hill and toward the private road opposite entices the eye with more greenery. Turning to the house and the property looks assured in its setting. The driveway is deep with space for several cars whilst the double garage sits offset to the house. There is side access from front to back and the rear garden is private, mature and trim.

Local Area - Premier Location

South Cheam is a joy to live in. Community envelopes the well kept streets and houses. With lots to see and do, the area is primed for rich family life. Warren Avenue cuts between Burdon Lane and Sandy Lane and is equally accessible to Belmont and Cheam Villages. Both villages offer train stations, shops and restaurants.

Why You Should Buy

For those in the know, this location, style and potential is in itself the reason to buy.
