Description
Beautifully maintained and presented to a high standard throughout, this impressive three-bedroom townhouse offers stylish and versatile accommodation arranged across three floors, ideally suited to modern family life.

The ground floor features a recently installed Howdens kitchen, creating a smart and contemporary heart to the home, alongside comfortable living space with access to the enclosed rear garden. The garden provides an attractive and private space for relaxing and entertaining, with access towards the garage and parking beyond.

On the first floor are two well-proportioned bedrooms together with the family bathroom, while the entire top floor creates a superb principal bedroom suite. Generously sized and complemented by its own en-suite shower room, it provides a real sense of privacy and separation from the rest of the accommodation.

Externally, the property benefits from a single garage to the rear together with off-street parking, adding valuable practicality to this attractive town home.

A particular advantage is the location. Set within the popular Corinium Via development, the property is conveniently positioned for local amenities and enjoys easy pedestrian access into Cirencester, making the town centre, its independent shops, cafés, restaurants and everyday facilities readily accessible on foot.

A superbly maintained home combining a modern interior, flexible three-storey accommodation and an excellent Cirencester location.

Outside
To the rear is a lovely enclosed garden, thoughtfully arranged for ease of maintenance and providing an attractive space for outdoor dining, entertaining and relaxing.

Gated rear access leads to the single garage, with off-street parking positioned in front, providing useful and convenient parking.

Location
Situating within an established and popular residential area of Cirencester, enjoying an attractive position overlooking a small green. The setting provides a pleasant outlook and a sense of openness, while remaining conveniently placed for the town's wide range of amenities and facilities. The property also enjoys easy access to a popular walking route into the town centre, providing a pleasant alternative to taking the car.

Cirencester is a thriving historic market town at the heart of the Cotswolds, renowned for its rich Roman heritage, attractive architecture and vibrant community. The town centre offers an excellent selection of independent shops, cafés, restaurants, pubs and everyday services, together with regular markets and a variety of leisure and cultural facilities. There is also a good choice of highly regarded primary and secondary schools in and around the town, making the area particularly appealing to families.

The surrounding Cotswold countryside provides numerous opportunities for walking, cycling and outdoor recreation, with a network of footpaths and attractive villages nearby. Cirencester is also well placed for access to the wider region, with convenient road connections to Cheltenham, Swindon, Gloucester and the M4 and M5 motorway networks. Nearby Kemble Station offers direct rail services to London Paddington, providing a practical option for commuters travelling into the capital.

Sellers Comments
"We have absolutely loved living here and have been very happy to call it home. It is a wonderful house for entertaining and hosting family and friends. The brand-new kitchen has been designed to complement the character and charm of the house, keeping in with its lovely Cotswold feel. The garden was created to make a seamless indoor-outdoor dining experience, making it a particularly special space to enjoy throughout the summer months. Situated in a quiet and peaceful neighbourhood, the house offers a wonderful combination of comfort, character and relaxed living, with only a short walk into town to enjoy everything Cirencester has to offer"
