Description

Step inside and you'll immediately appreciate the character and warmth that this charming Cotswold stone townhouse has to offer. Beautifully presented throughout, the property effortlessly combines period features with tasteful modern updates, creating a home that is both stylish and practical. The thick Cotswold stone walls not only add timeless character but also help the home remain naturally cool during the warmer summer months, creating a wonderfully comfortable living environment.

The welcoming sitting room enjoys an attractive feature fireplace with a wood-burning stove, providing a cosy focal point for relaxing evenings. To the rear, the heart of the home is the impressive open-plan kitchen and dining room, thoughtfully designed with solid wood worktops, a classic Butler sink, range cooker and an excellent selection of storage. Windows and doors frame views of the garden, allowing natural light to flood the space and making it ideal for both everyday family life and entertaining.

Arranged over three floors, the accommodation offers exceptional flexibility. The first floor provides two generous double bedrooms, complemented by a beautifully appointed family bathroom and separate cloakroom. The second floor continues to impress with two further spacious double bedrooms, while the spacious landing creates the perfect space for a home office, reading area or study.

Throughout the home, high ceilings, original features and a thoughtfully designed layout create an inviting sense of space, resulting in a wonderful family home just a short walk from Cirencester's bustling Market Place.

Outside

A paved terrace leads onto a lawn bordered by established hedging and attractive Cotswold stone walling, while a substantial workshop provides excellent storage or potential as a home office or studio (subject to any necessary consents). Gated side access completes this wonderful outdoor space.
