Description

A striking period townhouse situated in one of Cirencester's most sought-after roads, just a level walk to the town centre. Behind its handsome façade, this home combines character and practicality with four double bedrooms, three reception rooms, and versatile accommodation arranged over three floors.

The ground floor welcomes you with two elegant reception rooms, both light and spacious with wood-burning stoves. To the rear, a third reception room is perfectly placed as a dining room with French doors opening onto the garden, and it sits opposite a well-equipped kitchen with ample storage, a breakfast bar, and a range cooker. A utility cupboard provides further convenience.

Upstairs, the first floor offers two generous double bedrooms, including one with an en-suite shower room, alongside a large family bathroom with bath and separate double shower. The second floor presents two further double bedrooms with a useful cloakroom.

The house benefits from ample storage, tasteful redecoration, and new flooring. Outside, the garden has been designed for low maintenance entertaining with paved areas, bespoke timber fencing, and a covered dining space. A rear gate opens to secure parking for two vehicles and a garage, rarely found so close to the centre of town.

Exterior

Set behind traditional railings and a neat front garden, the property has real street presence. To the rear, a private low-maintenance garden has been landscaped for entertaining, with a covered dining area, bespoke timber fencing, and direct access to the garage and parking.

Sellers Comments

"This has been a fabulous, low maintenance property. Being in the centre of Town and it's close proximity to all shops and amenities has been a great bonus, as is the off street parking and single garage"

Area

This home sits on one of Cirencester's most highly regarded roads, just a level walk from the vibrant town centre. Known as the Capital of the Cotswolds, Cirencester offers a wonderful blend of history and modern living, with bustling markets, boutique shops, cafés, and fine dining. Excellent schools are nearby, alongside parks and green spaces for walks and recreation. The town also enjoys superb connectivity to Cheltenham, Swindon, Oxford, and the M4/M5 corridors, making it ideal for both local and commuting lifestyles.
