

94 London Road, Radlett
Hertfordshire WD7 9DX
Guide Price £675,000

Offered for sale is this most lovely character property in the heart of Shenley Village. This property is in need of some care and attention and a full makeover to realise it's full potential.

With generous living space and configured over three floors, this pretty semi detached house currently has three bedrooms and two bathrooms (one on the top floor and one downstairs) and several downstairs flexible spaces.

The property boasts a lovely low maintenance garden and very big garage space that could make an ideal annexe (stpp), or possibly could be a development opportunity.

This is a wonderful project for the end user to create a spacious and luxury home. The vendor has priced this property taking into account the required work.
