46C High Street, Malmesbury

The Property

Formerly part of a Victorian warehouse dating back to 1887, the building has been converted over recent years into three individual, cottage-style freehold houses with courtyard gardens. Each is now offered for sale, with no chain.

Accessed via a charming private alleyway directly off the High Street, the attractively rendered properties are tucked away in the heart of this sought-after town.

Ideally suited to a first-time buyer, someone seeking to downsize to a peaceful and easy-to-maintain house, or indeed someone looking for a market-town second home, the properties have all been recently redecorated and are in excellent condition.

The Accommodation

The front door opens into the kitchen with cream shaker style units, built-in oven, gas hob with extractor over. There is space for a washer drier and fridge freezer. A door opens into the sitting room with open fireplace and stairs to first floor. Upstairs are two double bedrooms and bathroom with white suite.

Outside is a west facing courtyard area offering a blank canvas to create a stylish outdoor haven.

General

All mains are connected. A gas fired combination boiler provides central heating and hot water. UPVC double glazed windows are fitted throughout. Council Tax band B - £2047.29 payable for 2026/27. EPC rating band D - 68.

Malmesbury

Reported to be England's oldest borough, dating from around 880AD, Malmesbury is a vibrant market town. Home to a stunning 12th century Abbey, a 15th century Market Cross and a charming High Street with unique, independent shops. There are lovely walks along the beautiful River Avon, fabulous cafes, restaurants, pubs and the oldest Hotel in England. It has a Waitrose supermarket, a regular farmers' market, a library, museum, leisure centre with pool, two primary schools and a 'High Performing Academy' secondary school. It is also home to the UK headquarters of Dyson. Nearby are the popular attractions of Westonbirt Arboretum and the Cotswold Water Park. The City of Bath is 23 miles to the south-west and J17 of the M4, 5 miles south, provides access to the area's major employment centres and there are trains to Paddington in just over an hour from Chippenham and Kemble. The nearest airport is at Bristol and London Heathrow is within easy reach along the M4.
