The Property

A conveniently located ground-floor apartment with its own private entrance. The accommodation comprises a well-proportioned sitting/dining/kitchen with integrated appliances, inner hallway with useful storage cupboard, bathroom, and a good-sized double bedroom with built-in storage.

The property is well maintained and benefits from a share of the freehold, along with an allocated parking space. Ideally situated within walking distance of the town centre and amenities.

Outside

At the front is a well stocked communal garden area and at the rear is an allocated parking space.

Tenure

On completion the purchaser will receive a 1/6th share in the Freehold and there is no ground rent payable. The current service charge is around £720 pa which includes buildings insurance, communal maintenance and a contribution to the sinking fund.

General

All mains connected. The gas combination boiler supplies central heating and hot water. Council Tax band A - £1754.82 payable for 2026/27. EPC rating Band C - 79.

Malmesbury

Reported to be England's oldest borough, dating from around 880AD, and voted Best Town in the South West in 2026. Malmesbury is a vibrant market town. Home to a stunning 12th century Abbey, a 15th century Market Cross and a charming High Street with unique, independent shops. There are lovely walks along the beautiful River Avon, fabulous cafes, restaurants, pubs and the oldest Hotel in England. It has a Waitrose supermarket, a regular farmers' market, a library, museum, leisure centre with pool, two primary schools and a 'High Performing Academy' secondary school. It is also home to the UK headquarters of Dyson. Nearby are the popular attractions of Westonbirt Arboretum and the Cotswold Water Park. The City of Bath is 23 miles to the south-west and J17 of the M4, 5 miles south, provides access to the area's major employment centres and there are trains to Paddington in just over an hour from Chippenham and Kemble. The nearest airport is at Bristol and London Heathrow is within easy reach along the M4.

Directions to SN16 9FR

At the top of Malmesbury High Street bear left and continue past the Abbey to the Triangle. Here turn right and continue down Gloucester Road and straight over the first roundabout. At the second, take the third exit and the property is the first on your left hand side.
