This well-positioned corner plot property presents an excellent opportunity for first-time buyers, investors or those looking for a home they can modernise and make their own. Offered to the market with no onward chain and vacant possession, the property provides well-proportioned accommodation throughout, with some refreshing and updating required.

Upon entering, the property comprises an entrance hallway, a spacious lounge and a kitchen/diner providing a practical space for everyday living and entertaining.

To the first floor are three bedrooms and a family bathroom, offering comfortable accommodation for a family or potential tenants.

Externally, the property benefits from gardens and a garage, with the corner plot providing additional outdoor space and further potential.

While the property would benefit from some modernisation, it offers an exciting opportunity for a buyer to add their own style and potentially increase its appeal and value.
