Church Lane, Stow Maries, CM3 6SL

An extraordinary chance to own a piece of English heritage, this remarkable Victorian School House has been masterfully restored, blending original period details with contemporary luxury. From the moment you step through the grand oak doorway, you're met with a breathtaking sense of space and history. The dramatic open-plan living area stuns with double-height ceilings, a bespoke kitchen framed by exposed brickwork, a gleaming Aga, and a polished concrete floor, all crowned by the sweeping galleried staircase. Every corner of this home speaks of craftsmanship, elegance, and a respect for its historic soul.

Nestled high above the Crouch Valley in the peaceful village of Stow Maries, this home offers views that stretch endlessly across open paddocks and countryside. The vibrant local community enjoys the rare privilege of countryside living with modern convenience, South Woodham Ferrers station connects you easily to London, while the historic towns of Maldon and Chelmsford are just a short drive away. Wander to the nearby village pub, explore country walks, or immerse yourself in the rich aviation history of the Stow Maries WW1 Aerodrome.

The ground floor unfolds around a breathtaking open-plan heart, a space designed for entertaining, relaxing, and soaking in the uninterrupted rural views. A cosy lounge with an original fireplace invites you to unwind, while a handy utility room with stable door and a chic downstairs WC add practicality. Upstairs, the gallery landing leads to four charming bedrooms, the principal suite offers an indulgent escape, with a dressing room and elegant en-suite. Two further double bedrooms and a characterful single room share a stylish family bathroom, all capturing the home's unique charm.

Outside, the magic continues with a gated driveway, a bespoke-built cart lodge, and a wraparound garden made for tranquil living and entertaining. The detached, renovated outbuilding holds enormous potential as a home office or guest suite (subject to planning).

This unique and beautifully restored Victorian School House offers an unrivalled blend of character, luxury, and breathtaking views all within a peaceful, historic setting. With no onward chain, this remarkable home is ready for you to move straight in and start enjoying country living at its finest.
