DESCRIPTION:

Welcome to Number Five St Thomas Road – an impressively spacious and well-presented family home, ideally situated on a quiet and well-maintained street featuring a blend of houses, bungalows, and apartments. Just a short walk from the vibrant town centre, you'll find everything from independent boutiques to popular high street brands. Whether you're after relaxed dining in cosy bistros or a night out at stylish restaurants and bars, Newquay offers something to suit every lifestyle. The area is also home to a number of highly rated nurseries, primary, and secondary schools, making it a top choice for families looking to settle in a friendly and well-connected community.

Set on one of Newquay's sought-after residential streets, this house seamlessly combines classic character with modern upgrades. Spanning three spacious floors, this versatile family home offers four bedrooms, a functional loft room, and spectacular far-reaching sea views across the North Cornwall coastline.

Thoughtfully renovated and exceptionally well-presented, the property enjoys a prime location just moments from Newquay town centre, while also offering practical features such as off-street parking and a solid brick-built garden shed. Offered chain-free, the home is ideal for those looking to make a smooth and hassle-free move.

As you step inside, you're welcomed by a level entrance and a sheltered inner porch that opens into a wide, central hallway—setting the tone for the sense of space and light found throughout the property. The ground floor is well laid out, featuring a bright and airy lounge with a large bay window, a separate formal dining room perfect for entertaining, and a substantial kitchen-breakfast room. The kitchen has been stylishly updated with a high-spec Wickes design and includes integrated appliances, ample worktop space, and room for additional white goods. A rear door provides direct access to the garden and parking area, making everyday living incredibly convenient.

The first floor is cleverly designed with two split-level landings. The first leads to a rear-facing bedroom—ideal as a single or compact double—alongside a family bathroom fitted with a modern white suite, tiled walls, and a shower-over-bath. The remaining three bedrooms are arranged across the upper landing, including two generous doubles filled with natural light and a third single bedroom that could serve as a nursery, home study, or dressing room.

At the top of the house is the loft room—a flexible space currently used as a guest room, but just as suited for a hobby space or study. A Velux window frames breathtaking views of the sea, creating a calming retreat with a true wow factor.

Outside, the rear of the property offers private parking for one car. For those needing more space, the existing block-built storage shed could be removed to extend the parking area. The garden is neatly presented and easy to maintain, enjoying afternoon and evening sunshine.

In summary, this property is a rare find: a substantial and stylishly upgraded period home in a prime location, just minutes from Newquay's beaches, shops, and schools. With no onward chain, it's ready and waiting for its next chapter.
