DESCRIPTION:

Welcome to Fairhaven, a deceptively spacious three double bedroom detached bungalow set in an elevated position within the ever-popular mid-county village of St Columb Road. Enjoying far-reaching countryside views, this appealing home offers a wonderful opportunity for buyers seeking a property with both charm and significant potential.

The location is ideal for day-to-day living, with St Columb Road, Indian Queens, and Fraddon all close by, offering a range of local amenities including a primary school, doctor's surgery, convenience stores, and more. Kingsley Village, home to Marks and Spencer, adds further convenience. Excellent transport links are nearby, including easy access to the A30 and Newquay Airport, making commuting straightforward. The coastal town of Newquay is within easy reach, along with St Austell, Wadebridge, Padstow, and the cathedral city of Truro.

Awelcoming hallway guides you into this property, where warm natural wood flooring flows through much of the home. The front of the property is very impressive, featuring two gorgeous bay-fronted rooms. The main living room is filled with natural light and framed by expansive rural views, with an open fireplace ready to be reinstated for a log burner. Adjacent, a spacious double bedroom mirrors these proportions and outlook, also benefiting from its own character fireplace.

Further accommodation includes two additional well-sized double bedrooms. To the rear, the family bathroom is fitted with a modern white suite, complemented by striking black and white tiling and a shower over the bath. The kitchen, also positioned at the rear, is fitted with light wood effect units and includes an integrated oven, hob, and extractor, along with space for additional appliances. Within the kitchen, there's a large storage cupboard housing the combination boiler. From the kitchen, there is direct access to the garden.

The property benefits from UPVC double glazing and gas-fired central heating throughout. Notably, a new roof was installed in 2022, a parking area has been created, and four Velux windows have been added to the loft, helping to make a loft conversion a far more straightforward prospect, subject to the necessary regulations. There is also clear potential to extend to the rear, should additional space be desired.

Outside, to the front, there's ample off road parking for three cars. A long driveway runs alongside the property, leading to the rear where there's access to a garage/workshop. The rear garden is enclosed, offering excellent privacy and a generous space for families, complete with a sunny patio area and a useful outbuilding incorporating a storeroom and separate utility with plumbing.

Fairhaven presents a rare chance to acquire a spacious and versatile home in a well-connected Cornish setting, with exciting scope to enhance and personalise.
