Paul Mason Associates are pleased to offer for sale this completely modernised three/four bedroom detached bungalow situated at the end of a long driveway on a large secluded plot, which must be viewed internally to be fully appreciated. The spacious accommodation is approached via a large entrance hall which in turn leads to a triple aspect lounge, re-fitted kitchen and family bathroom, as well as the three/four bedrooms. The fourth bedroom which overlooks the landscaped gardens, could be used as a study or TV room. The kitchen is very well appointed, finished with Corian work surfaces, featuring a central matching island and opens up into the dining room with part vaulted ceilings. The master bedroom is at the rear of the bungalow and benefits from a re-fitted en-suite, plus a re-fitted family bathroom serves the remaining accommodation. The bungalow offers ample parking to the front, as well as a double garage (also accessible from the bungalow itself) and is conveniently located for all the local amenities, as well as the train station into London.
