Gary Townsend at Paul Mason Associates offers, with NO ONWARD CHAIN, a well presented three bedroom detached bungalow with double garage and wonderful gardens, within close proximity to the Village Green. The property has been recently upgraded and is ready to move straight into and enjoy. An internal inspection is highly advised.

The property is situated in the historic village of Writtle, located to the South West of Chelmsford close to the Hylands Park & Estate, and is desired for its picturesque Green (complete with duck pond) and Norman church. It has a convenient selection of shops including a post office, a butcher’s shop, tea rooms, plus a supermarket and other independent shops surrounding the Village Green. It also benefits from a range of highly regarded restaurants and pubs. There is a pre-school, a primary school and a senior school and it is also home to Writtle College; one of the UK’s oldest and largest agricultural colleges.

Front & Gardens

A particular feature of this newly refurbished bungalow is that it sits centrally to wonderful landscaped gardens which provide a wealth of colour and fragrance through the year. Set behind mature hedging, there is an abundance of trees and plants to the borders, wrapping round a central level lawn with a wonderful Magnolia tree, centrally positioned. The gardens can be enjoyed from all rooms in the house especially the lounge/dining room and conservatory. This is a wonderful, tranquil space, yet only yards from Writtle's quintessential Village Green.
