NO CHAIN Gary Townsend at Paul Mason Associates offers an attractive three bedroom detached family home occupying a generous plot and enjoying pleasant views towards adjoining fields to the front. Offering spacious and versatile accommodation including multiple reception areas, conservatory, study, fitted kitchen and mature rear garden, the property presents excellent potential for modernisation and personalisation. Further benefits include extensive driveway parking, attached garage and a sought after residential position.

The property is situated in the historic village of Writtle, located to the South West of Chelmsford close to the Hylands Park & Estate, and is desired for its picturesque Green (complete with duck pond) and Norman church. It has a convenient selection of shops including a post office, a butcher's shop, tea rooms, plus a supermarket and other independent shops surrounding the village green. It also benefits from a range of highly regarded restaurants and pubs. There is a pre-school, a primary school and a senior school and it is also home to Writtle College (part of Anglia Ruskin University); one of the UK's oldest and largest agricultural colleges.
