Paul Mason Associates

Springfield Road, Chelmsford, Essex, CM2 6BP

Guide price £2,250,000

An elegant grand detached Victorian Villa built in 1895 by the Bolingbroke family. Lancaster house was sympathetically extended eleven years ago by Bakers of Danbury and now enjoys stunning symmetrical double fronted and rear elevations. Internally, this light filled property has a wealth of original architectural features that stand out due to the restrained colour palette used throughout. Stylish modern additions create a perfect balance to this unique residence.

Paul Mason Associates are privileged to be the sole agent for this stunning property. An early viewing of one of the finest residential properties within the City is advised.

The Property

The accommodation offers opulence throughout which starts with the magnificent entrance hall providing access to all of the main living rooms and the fine galleried staircase to the first and second floors, a perfect entertaining space for large numbers of guests. Of particular note is the beautifully proportioned drawing room. High ceilings, molded skirting and ornate cornicing also enhance the property.

The living area comprises three large reception rooms with feature bay sash windows and French doors to the gardens, a delightful conservatory to the side of the property overlooks the rear gardens, spacious open plan kitchen/breakfast room and family living. In addition on the ground floor, there is a cloakroom and useful wine cellar.

The first floor features a galleried landing. The accommodation is versatile with four double bedrooms all with sash bay windows, an impressive en-suite to the main bedroom and separate shower room with interconnecting doors from the guest bedroom and landing.

The second floor features a landing area measuring 21'7" x 13'9" which provides access to a further two double bedrooms and an equally impressive bathroom suite. There is also a useful drying room that could be converted into a seventh double bedroom.

Externally the property is approached via high electric double iron gates to the spacious driveway providing access to the entrance vestibule and bespoke oak cart lodge, which consists of a double car port and single garage, with a large versatile room over.

The gardens to the rear are well manicured with neat sweeping lawns and feature boxed hedging, mature cedar tree. A principle feature is the charming parterre garden with central water feature. The brick paved terrace immediately to the rear of the property features a veranda with glass roof and to one side of the plot is a Victorian octagonal summerhouse with views over the gardens. The garden offers a great deal of privacy with mature planting to all boundaries.

The property has the addition of a self-contained home office/annexe with its own kitchenette and bathroom with adjacent sheltered courtyard leading to utility room and useful workshop.
