An excellent opportunity to acquire a residential building plot with planning permission granted for the construction of a detached three-bedroom house, located in the village of Southminster, Essex.

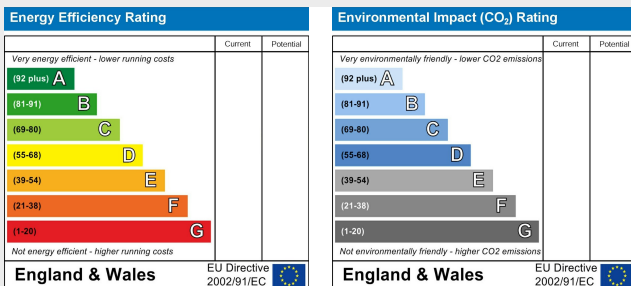

The approved accommodation is arranged over two floors and has been thoughtfully designed for modern family living. The ground floor comprises an entrance hall, cloakroom/WC, a living room, and a spacious kitchen/dining room with direct access to the rear garden. To the first floor, the proposed layout provides three bedrooms and a family bathroom.

The plans show a well-proportioned detached home with an attractive traditional exterior, off-street parking provision, and private garden space. The proposed total floor area is approximately 102 sq m, with additional storage allocation shown within the approved layout.

Southminster is a well-served village offering local amenities, schooling, countryside surroundings, and transport links, including rail connections via Southminster station.

This plot represents an appealing development opportunity for builders, investors, or private buyers looking to create a brand-new detached home in a popular Essex village setting.

Location

Southminster is a semi-rural village in the Dengie Peninsula area, popular with commuters due to its train station with links to London. The village also benefits from scenic walks, a primary school, tennis and football club, swimming pool, various shops, restaurants and public houses, something for everyone and ideal for families. The local towns are Burnham-On-Crouch which is within 3 miles, Maldon and South Woodham Ferrers both within 12 miles. The village has many character properties, cottages and Victorian residence. Historically the village was known for its annual horse market, and in the centre, St Leonards Church at the heart of the village dates back to the 15th century.
