This stunning, thoughtfully renovated period property is conveniently situated in the heart of Burnham-On-Crouch. This historic town is located on the banks of the River Crouch which provides scenic walks along the riverbank. The attractive town is full of charm with its character properties and listed buildings. The town is most known for its yachting centre with the marina having 350 berths, making the town an ideal location for boating enthusiasts. There are plenty of amenities including a train station, golf club, cinema, launderette, post office, pharmacies, shops, a primary and high school and 22 licenced drinking establishments. The town hosts an array of events for both adults and children including the illuminated carnival which has been ongoing for more than 100 years, a Halloween history tour, craft fairs, markets and even a charity fund raising pub crawl.

The accommodation comprises a generous entrance hall with beautiful exposed brickwork, a refitted cloakroom/utility room with hard tile flooring and a wonderful open plan family room with a bespoke refitted kitchen finished in farrow and ball paint in the shades Ammonite grey and Hague blue. Within this open space, there is also a dining area and lounge area with skylights above and a bar area. The inner hall benefits from two storage cupboards, and provides access to three double bedrooms and a stunning refitted bathroom suite with a freestanding bath and a shower over.

Externally, to the rear the property is a private, secluded and relandscaped garden with a modern porcelain grey patio tiles. To the front, there is off-road parking for two vehicles and access to this lovely ground floor maisonette which benefits highly from owning 50% of the freehold.

50% Freehold

A "50% freehold" in the context of property ownership means that you and another individual or group own the freehold of a property together, with each party holding a 50% share of the freehold title. This typically applies to flats or apartments where multiple owners share ownership of the building and land, rather than outright ownership as with a traditional freehold. AI.
